

Lindsey Hopkins Technical College

Fashion Technology & Production Services

Program Outlook:

- This program is designed to prepare students for initial employment or continued study in the garment, textile, and fashion industries.

Program Content:

- Garment Fabrication Specialist
- Industrial Seamstress
- Introduction to Patternmaking
- Introduction to Entrepreneurship
- Alterations Specialist
- Formalwear Specialist
- Employability skills

Length of Program:

- The average length of this program is 1050 hours (approx. 13 months) for adults attending full-time. Actual time is dependent on enrollment status (if full-time/part-time) and the length of time the student requires to achieve competencies.

Entrance Requirements:

- Application
- Interview with the counselor
- Initial assessment in reading, math, and language
- All students must be at least 16 years old and not attending high school.
- Fees for supplies and textbooks required

Financial Aid is available for those who qualify.

(305) 324-6070
750 NW 20th Street, Miami, FL 33127
www.lindseyhopkins.edu

